BID 7 MILLION
FOR "WORTHLESS"
GERMAN SHIPSFormer Shipping Board
President Says Old
Boats Valuable.HAD BEEN CHARGED OFF
AS WORTHLESS BY MEMBERSDeclares Real Value of Fleet Is Above Sixty-
Eight Millions.

Washington, Feb. 19.—Bids amounting to $6,810,000 were received by the shipping board for seven former German passenger ships over 20 years old, which the board has listed "as valueless," commissioner Raymond B. Stevens, former vice chairman of the board, testified today before the senate committee investigating the proposed sale of the once German liners. Mr. Stevens explained that the board's policy was to charge off five per cent a year for depreciation and that the board therefore had held that ships 20 years old or more were worthless. As a matter of fact, he said, the seven ships referred to were easily worth $10,000,000. The bids received for them were: Amphion $612,000; Eschscholtz $600,000; Nauvau $600,000; Aebius $1,048,000; Princess Matoika $1,125,000; Antigone $1,200,000 and Pocahontas $1,425,000.

The value of all the German ships offered for sale was three or four times the amount of the bids received, Mr. Stevens said. The real value was between $68,000,000 and $79,000,000. Although he asked that the ships be appraised by experts outside the shipping board and that he be allowed to sit with them, Mr. Stevens said he was not notified when the experts met and knew nothing of the appraisal until it appeared in the committee's report. The appraisal was made by Frank E. Martin and Howard L. Gardner of New York, both recognized marine experts, he said, but it did not represent the "real value" of the vessels.

Chairman Payne of the shipping board, announced that he would recommend that an appeal from the temporary injunction order be filed immediately. Meantime he said it was expected that Mr. Hearst would be required to furnish bond to protect the board against loss by reason of the ships lying idle.

Washington, Feb. 19.—A temporary injunction to prevent the sale of the 30 former German passenger liners recently offered by the board was granted today by Associate Justice Bailey, of the district supreme court.

Justice Bailey said that after a careful examination of the statutes he was of the opinion that they did not show an intention on the part of the congress to place in the president or in the shipping board the power to sell the ships.

Application for the injunction was made last Saturday by William Randolph Hearst and hearings on it were held last Monday while the ships were being offered to the public at auction. The board announced yesterday that it had decided to reject all of the bids received. At the same time it asked congress for authority to again offer the ships at public auction.

Wages.UNION MEN TO PROTEST
WAGE PROVISION IN BILLConference of Labor Leaders Held to Draft Letter To President.

Washington, Feb. 19.—A committee of railroad executives today tendered their cooperation to Director General Hines in carrying out the proposal of President Wilson for the creation of a committee of experts to gather data on the wage problem. They expressed themselves as "fully appreciating the desirability of expedition" in handling the wage question.

Protest against the wage provision of the completed railroad bill will be made in letters to President Wilson and Director General Hines which representatives of the railroad union organizations and officials of the American Federation of Labor were framing today at conferences at the federation headquarters.

Wage provisions of the bill, reported to the senate and house yesterday, were counted on to enter largely into the deliberations beginning today, of the conference between Director General Hines and 25 leading railroad executives.

Sections of the revised measure which, it was considered would attract most attention from the railroad executives were those prohibiting any reduction in the wages of railroad workers prior to September 1, and creating a permanent arbitration board of nine members, representing the public, the workers and the corporations.

The conference with the railroad executives was called by Mr. Hines to ascertain the attitude which the railroad corporations would assume toward the proposal advanced by President Wilson in his reply to the demands of railroad employees that a federal commission be appointed to consider the wage problem. The conferees' draft of the bill was studied by the labor leaders at an informal conference last night by those attending the meeting refused to say whether any definite attitude was decided.

SEN. POMERENE
IS OUT OF RAGEOhioan Withdraws Because of Press of Duties In Congress—Relieves His Friends of Pledges to Support.

Washington, Feb. 19.—Senator Atlee Pomerene of Ohio last night withdrew from the Democratic presidential contest, announcing his decision in a formal statement issued to Ohio Democrats.

Principal reasons assigned as having influenced this decision were:

Disinclination to neglect his official duties as a member of the United States senate in order to enter a political campaign; the apparent futility of prosecuting such a candidacy outside of Ohio with the handicap of a divided delegation from his home state, and his desire to maintain party harmony.

Although his announcement caused little surprise, in the light of apparently reliable reports during the last few days, it was the first declaration on the subject made by Senator Pomerene personally, and is accepted as final.

Its immediate effect was to provide impetus to the presidential campaign of Governor James M. Cox of Ohio, who now is assured of a united Democratic delegation from his state when his name is presented at the San Francisco convention June 23.

Notwithstanding the recent uncertainty of the Ohio situation, Governor Cox's candidacy already has gained a strong foothold outside of Ohio, according to newspaper comment and statements of Democratic leaders of national prominence.

Ohio Democrats at the capital, even those known to have favored Senator Pomerene, breathed sighs of relief when they realized that a bitter party fight in Ohio had been avoided.

Senator Pomerene's followers, who urged his entrance into the presidential race to the last, are free to rally under the Cox standard, with the almost certain assurance that their leader will be found among Ohio's "Big Four" pledged to the Cox candidacy.

MARTENS SAYS SOVIETS
CHANGE MANY LAWS

Washington, Feb. 19.—Many changes have been made in the original methods and laws of the Russian Soviet government, Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, its agent in the United States testified today before the senate committee investigating Bolshevik propaganda in the United States.

Among other things, he said, priests and clergymen can now vote and press censorship has been abolished. Groups which criticize the Soviet are tolerated and allowed to maintain newspapers, he added.

Wade Ellis, counsel for the committee questioned Martens on the basis of many documents printed articles of Soviet leaders. Martens said objections against religion announced today that seventeen bodies have been destroyed in English cemeteries and were ready for shipment. This will be the first homebound movement of American soldier dead with the exception of 311 bodies returned last November from Arranciel.

WILSON PROMPT IN ANSWERING
ADRIATIC NOTEReply Sent to State Department to Be Prepared
For Cables.NATURE OF REPLY IS NOT
INDICATED AT WHITE HOUSEPresident Sets New Record
In Diplomatic Circles
For Promptness.

Washington, Feb. 19.—President Wilson today completed his reply to the allied supreme council's note on the Adriatic question and sent it to Acting Secretary Polk of the state department who is putting it in form for transmittal to the council. It is expected to be on the cables before night.

There is no indication as to the note's contents or its length. The president began drafting it early this morning and completed it in two hours. The council's communication was received here yesterday and the speed with which the reply was prepared was said to constitute something of a record.

Comment on the allied reply was withheld and it will not be made public without the approval of France, Great Britain and Italy but it was learned authoritatively that the government looks with favor on publication of the exchanges and has taken steps to ascertain the wishes of those governments. One reason the publication is desired here is to prevent further prejudicial interpretations of President Wilson's note such as have appeared in the foreign press.

Cable dispatches indicated that the reply was conciliatory and that the whole question of Fiume and the Dalmatian littoral was at least ripe for negotiation. There was a suggestion also that the allied premiers had asked the United States to indicate the practical steps that could be taken to carry out the original agreement as to the Adriatic under which Fiume was to be made into a free state under the League of Nations and the principle of self-determination followed in disposing of the Dalmatian coast. It was said to be the European view that the seizure of Fiume by D'Annunzio and his Italian troops had brought about such a delicate situation that any attempt to restore the status quo might bring about more war.

President Wilson, it was learned, has taken the position that this country is interested in the Adriatic settlement as a co-belligerent in the war, despite the fact that the treaty of Versailles has not been ratified here. On similar questions, such as those affecting Armenia and Turkey, this country likewise is prepared to keep in close touch with decisions reached by the premiers at their London conferences at which the United States is not represented. All future taken in his case, and he was said to be under no such obligation.

It is now pretty generally known that in that communication the President informed the allied countries that if they proceeded to a settlement of the Adriatic question without the consent and approval of the United States government, the United States might have to decide whether it could become a party to the treaty of Versailles and the Anglo-French-American pact.

The note received from the council yesterday was sent to the White House immediately after it was decoded and the President studied it very carefully during the afternoon and the evening. When he was ready to begin work today he was understood to have had a reply well outlined in his mind and consequently was able to dictate it in a short time.

The President was reported as being perfectly willing for the exchanges to be given to the public after he had completed his work, which was done with the drafting of the note. However, no decision as to making the communications public will be reached until the allied premiers have been heard from. They have been approached as to their wishes.

CANADA DEMANDS VOTE
IN LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Winnipeg, Feb. 19.—Either Canada or the United States would have to step out of the League of Nations under the Lennox reservation proposed in the United States senate and Canada will insist on its right to place Arthur Meighen, minister of the interior, as asserted in an address before the Winnipeg board of trade. Membership in the league without power to vote, he said, would be a sham.

The signs are not so reassuring as we would like, Mr. Meighen continued. "Representation asked by Canada is essential if the right of the Canadian people to nationhood is not to be altogether. Canada cannot remain neutral in which have in part more over vote and representation are not conceded."

COMMISSIONER EXPLAINS STATUS OF UTICA ROAD

Ready to Complete Entire Road If State and Federal Aid Is Given—County Can't Finance Job Alone.

"There has been much criticism of the county commissioners by the Utica Herald and by others," said Commissioner J. L. McCracken today, relative to the Newark-Mt. Vernon and the Utica-Martinsburg roads, both inter-county highways. These are the facts relative to the activities tending towards the improvement of these highways.

"The cost of improving inter-county highways in Licking county," he said, "is paid jointly by state, county, township and benefited property owners. The latter pay 20 per cent of the cost of the improvement, the township 15 per cent and the state and county pay the remainder."

"In counties the size of Licking the state may pay any proportion of the cost not to exceed 50 per cent at the option of the state highway commissioner."

"Some months ago the county commissioners made written application for $150,000 state and federal aid to improve the Newark-Mt. Vernon road from the north line of Newark township to the village of Utica, by way of St. Louisville, hoping that inasmuch as there was a large amount of federal money to be distributed this year, the state board would grant the full amount and would pay the full 50 per cent of the cost and if such had been done the contract for the entire improvement contemplated could have been made this year."

"On January 5, the commissioners made a personal application for aid at the office of the state highway commissioner and secured a grant of $75,000 to be used on five miles with the understanding that it must not be used on a cheap type of road. The commissioners were requested to return later and an additional appropriation might be made for them."

"Late in January the commissioners returned to Columbus for the purpose of endeavoring to secure more state aid but failed to secure an audience with the advisory board of the state highway department."

"Tuesday of this week the commissioners met the advisory board in Columbus but failed to secure any definite assurance of an additional appropriation, but were advised to go ahead with the five miles of improvement and perhaps matters would so adjust themselves that the board could appropriate an additional amount by that time for the completion of the entire improvement."

The superintendent of highways in Licking county, Clyde W. Irwin, has advised the commissioners that the type of road satisfactory to the state will cost approximately $40,000 per mile and the total cost of the five miles of the contemplated improvement would be $200,000. On that basis the property owners would pay $40,000, the township $30,000, the state $55,000, leaving $75,000 to be paid by the county.

Relative to where the county would secure its share of money for the improvement, Commissioner McCracken stated that the people last November voted for an exemption from limitation of two miles for county road improvements but that it could not be used in connection with state aid but would take care of all county pikes and spurs and would aggregate 32 hundreds of a mile, which upon a tax duplicate of $105,000,000 would raise $34,000, which will constitute the county's share in the above division.

Commissioner McCracken further stated that there had been no application by the county commissioners for state aid for the Utica-Martinsburg road as the Newark-Mt. Vernon road had the floor in the office of the state highway department, and that it was a mighty big job to handle.

MT. VERNON HIGH TO PLAY LAST HOME GAME

The high school game with Mt. Vernon Friday is the last game to be played at home this season. While the Newark team was beaten at Mt. Vernon, during the second half of the game the boys scored more than the Mt. Vernon five. Friday night's game is the first one in which all of the regular men are to play. Mt. Vernon has a good record and will no doubt put up a good game. A record crowd is expected.

As a preliminary game the freshmen and sophomore girls will play. The sophomores have already defeated the juniors in one game. The girls have been playing three weeks and this game will wind up the season for the girls.

Wilson and Orr will probably play forwards with Kelley will center. Baker and Allen will do the guarding. The team goes to Granville to play Monday.

REYNOLDSBURG WELL FLOWS 100 BBLs. AFTER SHOT

Wild Scramble for Leases Follows Unusual Showing in Wildcat Territory Just Over County Line.

The community oil well near Pickerington, south of Reynoldsburg, described by oil men as wildcat territory, was shot Wednesday and was estimated to be good for a flow of 100 barrels per day. The production is unusually good for undeveloped territory and as a result there has been a wild scramble for leases in the neighborhood according to word from Lancaster.

The new well is located on the Andrew Stemen farm. It is owned by a stock company composed of people living in that neighborhood. The drilling was done by R. H. Perry of Lancaster and the well was down approximately 3250 feet when the Trenton sand was struck and the oil showing made.

The well is about four miles south of Reynoldsburg and about a mile and a half west of Pickerington. It is just over the line in Fairfield county.

FLORISTS SHORT OF FLOWERS FOR FUNERALS

A man from McConnelsville called on a local florist this morning and placed a large order for flowers to be sent to McConnelsville to a funeral. He stated that he had stopped in Wheeling, Cambridge and Zanesville and that there were no cut flowers to be had in any of the places.

The shortage is due to the fact that there has been little sun since September. During the month of October there were 17 rainy days and very little clear weather in November and snow all during December.

The large number of funerals throughout the state since the influenza epidemic had also kept the supply low. Most of the rose shipments come from Chicago and there has been a shortage there too.

PADEREWSKI AT THE PIANO

Description of Great Master's Playing Well Called a Gem of Humorous Composition.

The death recently of Ed H. Smith recalled the humorous editorials which made his little newspaper, the Chula News, noted. The one which first drew attention to it follows:

"We heard the Polonaise, Paderewski, play the piano in Kansas City last night. The fellow is deceitful. He makes you think all the time that he is going to play a tune, but he never does. He flirts all around a tune, but never touches it. His hair looks like a wig, but it isn't. He deceives you in a hundred ways. He makes the sweetest sounds you ever heard that were not a tune. He has his piano so trained that the doggone thing will keep right on playing when he is not touching it. He reaches out slowly and strokes it, drawing back his elbows like a man brushing a girl's hair. You see the moonlight and you're there with your girl, but somehow she doesn't love you. We know the sorrow of that and that's why we don't like Paderewski. There are troubles enough in the world without hearing Paderewski. A man don't want to feel like he had thrown the mutilated remains of his grandmother in the sewer. If this is Paderewski's last visit to America we're glad of it. But we wouldn't take $100 for what we heard."

LOOKED AS IF HE KNEW

Good Reason, Why Soldiers Urged Lieutenant to Take Military Policeman's Word for It.

A colored detachment under a white lieutenant was making its way through the shattered territory near Dunsmuir during the thick of the Argentine drive. At a crossroads it encountered a traffic-directing M. P. who halted the column.

"Sorry, sir," he said to the officer in charge. "You are not allowed up that road. We have information that it is about to be shelled by the enemy."

The officer carefully examined his orders. "My instructions read differently," he declared. "I cannot believe that this is the road to be shelled. Have you any verification?"

At this moment a shell burst within a hundred yards, tearing up the earth and sending debris flying in every direction. The entire landscape was obliterated, and a dead silence, broken only by the crash of falling stones, ensued. Then, out of a cloud of settling dust, arose one faint, terrified voice:

"Fo' Gawd's sake, lieutenant, please take de gemmuh's word fo' it!"—The Home Sector.

Business Welcomes Radio Circuits

With the new radio circuits in operation between America and the far East, it is comforting to know, even if one has infrequent occasion to communicate with Japan, Hawaii and the Philippines, that the new service is considered quite reasonably inexpensive. One may communicate with Manila from the California stations for 6 cents a word, and with Hawaii for 3. Even if the rates were higher, however, the new circuits would be welcomed by American business interests, for the development of trade, as well as the transmission of news, has been seriously handicapped by lack of facilities for communication. The United States will get a better news service in consequence, do more business, and may feel also, according to naval officers, that the national defense system has been strengthened at a weak point.—Christian Science Monitor.

Airship Construction

Some interesting facts regarding the work required in building a large modern airship are given in a recent issue of the Engineer, which states that the general problems of design are closely allied to those of naval architecture, although the airship designer must be a highly skilled mechanical engineer and also must have a knowledge of textile technology. For the work on construction, owing to the multiplicity of parts required, a very efficient shop organization is necessary. In a rigid airship structure, excluding the machinery, there are 20,000 different parts, a total length of structural material of 20 miles, 60 miles of wire and more than 2,000,000 rivets.

Ruskin's Birthplace for Sale

No. 54 Hunter street, Brunswick square, London, the birthplace of John Ruskin, is for sale by private treaty. In the early days of the nineteenth century, says the London Telegraph, John James Ruskin came to London from Edinburgh to enter the wine trade. In 1819 he married his cousin, Margaret Cox, and February 8, 1819, the author of "Sesame and Lilies" was born. The house in Hunter street, which is now distinguished by a commemorative tablet, is of the substantial Georgian type so well known in Bloomsbury and was erected at a time when that district was particularly in favor among city merchants.

TIFFIN ATTORNEY ENDORSES HUTH

In Address to Halladay Stockholders Judge Kiskaddon Compliments Newark Manufacturer for Executive Ability.

Judge Alexander Kiskaddon, T. E. Huth, president of the Halladay Motor corporation, and E. S. Hulshizer of Newark addressed a meeting of stockholders and friends of the Halladay company at the high school auditorium Wednesday night. Judge Kiskaddon of Tiffin, said that he was not a stockholder in the Halladay but that he had been counsel for the company while it was located at Tiffin. He said that Newark was fortunate in securing the Halladay company and Mr. Huth and he said Mr. Huth a high compliment for his knowledge of the automobile industry and his executive ability.

Mr. Huth stated that the excavation for the new buildings are completed and that four cars of cement had just arrived. The foundations would be poured as soon as the site was cleared. He stated that he was entering into negotiations with a New York syndicate that will agree to take six cars a day and that he expected to close the deal soon. There is no decision as to whether the start and this number will be increased to five, 10 or 20 a day as is necessary. The company is in a financial condition and has no litigation, there is no encumbrance on the buildings of the company, and we have on hand a large amount of unused raw materials which are paid for," Mr. Huth said in a summary of the prospects of the company.

E. S. Hulshizer of Newark, who is the new secretary and treasurer, stated he had taken a large block of the Halladay stock because he had investigated the propositions with local people and his later conferences with Mr. Huth confirmed the favorable reports which he gained from his own investigation.

Theodore Cassell and Mr. Ferrer explained a plan to the stockholders whereby each of them is pledged to furnish the names of prospective purchasers of cars and to use their influence with these prospects for the Halladay car. This method, if successful, will furnish the company with the names of thousands of prospects and will go a long way to insure the sale of the Halladay car.

MUCH LIKE WESTERN CITY

Tiffin, Capital of New Georgian Republic, by No Means Typical of the East.

Mr. Melville Chater, recording impressions in the National Geographic Magazine, admits that he was surprised when he arrived in Tiffin, capital of the new Georgian republic. He had expected a city more suggestive of the East, as the Western mind pictures it; but the Golovinsky prospekt, the main thoroughfare through the heart of the city, stretched before him, "as handsome a bit of modern metropolitanism as can be found anywhere," and its restaurants, shops, opera, and what used to be the viceregal palace but which now flies the standard of the new nation, suggested at once the French adjective "chic." More than that, this new capital was brilliant with uniforms, Russian, Georgian, Armenian, British, and most picturesque of all, the Caucasian costume, with its broad-shouldered, wash-waisted coat, high, heeled boots, and astrakhan cap. One marveled at the load of weapons that completed it; a sword rattling and clanking with the wearer's martial stride, a brace of pistols, a pair of daggers, and a collection of what looked like enormous fountain pens hung across the Caucasian bosom, but which turned out to be hollow tubes intended to be loaded with powder and shot. One must add stiff mustaches and a close-shaven skull to picture this Georgian in all his glory on the Golovinsky prospekt of his national capital. Clothing for civilians is scarce and expensive in Tiffin, but the cast-off uniforms of military officers are for sale, and many a citizen in need of a new suit had bought himself an old uniform.

ARE RETURNING TO FARMS

Not Many of Uncle Sam's Fighters Have Succumbed to the Lure of the City.

Of America's mighty war forces of more than 4,500,000 men, 1,200,000, it is estimated, came from farms. Records in the bureau of war-risk insurance in Washington indicate that these farm-bred or farm-raised boys carried government life insurance amounting to over $10,000,000,000.

During the earlier demobilization it was so difficult to keep track of the discharged service men that it seemed as though a very large proportion of them did not return to their former addresses or homes. So many of the service men who had come from the farms seemed to be listening to the call of the city that it was feared more than one-half of them were not going back to the farms. Later the tide of migration set in toward the country, and now it is believed that the loss in man power to the farms, as the result of former service men settling elsewhere, may not be more than 500,000.

Dead Towns Awaken

Dead towns of the West are coming to life as a result of the silver boom. There were towns in Colorado and Nevada and Arizona, which, under the influence of silver in those days after the Civil war, burst into wild, rich life that has no parallel in history.

Clouds of dust are rising along the trails that lead across sagebrush plains. The mining engineer, present-day successor of the prospector and his burro, is astride in the silver country.

They are going back to the old shafts that yielded wealth when silver was above a dollar. With the advance in mining processes in the last four decades the chances of profits are many times multiplied.

Keeps Windows Free From Frost. In these days, when Jack Frost is busy drawing pictures on the windows, many beautiful works appear over night, but when he completely covers the glass, he is not so welcome. The Russians have a very effective way of preventing the obscuring of the windows by frost. In Russia the walls of the buildings are very thick, and double windows are fitted to the houses, set about 13 inches apart. The window sill between the outer and inner windows is decorated with bright green moss, and hidden there is a dish filled with calcium chloride, which absorbs all the moisture and thus effectually prevents the formation of ice during the long, cold winter.

Farming Fish. The International Association of Game, Fish and Conservationist Commissioners, at their recent convention in Louisville, pledged themselves to use every influence possible toward stimulation of a nation-wide movement looking to the construction of fish ponds upon farms in which desirable species of game and food fishes, especially the basses and the sunfishes, can be propagated for recreation and for food, at a comparatively small expense when contrasted with the vast benefits which will result therefrom.

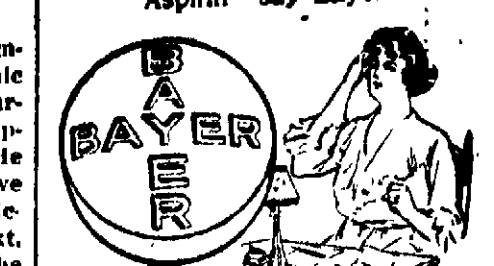

Fifty-Nine Degrees Below Zero.

Fifty-nine degrees below zero was registered in some parts of the Adirondacks last winter around the first of the year, according to weather bureau statistics. Better (or worse) than that was done by Jack Frost in Sweden, where the temperature registered 70.6 below zero. And in some parts of Alaska thermometers are absolutely useless, the best of them freezing up and refusing to tell how cold it is. In the dead of winter, in the interior of Alaska, pure alcohol freezes into solid blocks of ice, as does kerosene.—Exchange.

WANT DAYLIGHT SAVING IN CITY

Twilight League Managers Declare Change in Time Is Necessary For Success Of Schedule.

Representatives of six plants met at the Y. M. C. A. last night and discussed the proposition of renewing the Twilight League for the coming summer. It was unanimously voted that Newark must have eastern time if the city is to have a twilight base ball league.

It was decided that an eight team league would be all that could be properly handled on one playing field. White athletic field is centrally located and easy of access and the games will probably be scheduled for Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday of each week for the league season. Representatives of the larger plants last night conceded to the smaller plants by allowing them to double up in order to secure a good ball team.

While no detail rules were touched on several important rulings, were made last night. These will guide the teams as a working basis until the detailed rules are made by the athletic council. The two important rules are: that none but full time employees shall be eligible to play, and, that 21 dollars be used in the Industrial basket ball league shall decide when a new employee may play.

It was decided for the good of the players and spectators as well that one brand of ball be used and twenty of them be on hand to keep the game moving. There is no question about the need of shaping the infield for better play. The present gravel surface needs a cover of clay. The cost of the repairing and umpiring, and baseballs was a matter of much concern and it was suggested that season tickets to the games be printed and those sold. After much argument it was finally agreed that a general admission fee was not to be charged but that a seat in the grandstand would be taxed, season ticket holders to be granted this feature without extra charge.

MOOSE LODGE ENTERTAINS RETURNED SOLDIER MEMBERS

Returned over seas soldiers were the guests of the Newark Lodge of Loyal Order of Moose at a very enjoyable party at the Moose house in East Park Place Wednesday evening. The evening's program consisted of a boxing match between "Shorty" McLaughlin, who drove a heavy ammunition truck, attached to the French Army, and Kid Miller, a local lad. The affair was a six round affair and honors were evenly divided. At the finish the boys were roundly cheered for their splendid exhibition.

The next number was a wrestling bout between Vaseo Wallace and Billy Gallagher, who tugged, pulled and grappled for thirty minutes without a decision. After this match the guests were ushered to the banquet hall where a splendid pig dinner and all of the fixings that go with it was served. The guests of honor pronounced the affair fine and were loud in the praise of their hosts.

SUMMIT STATION. Edward Smith of Fargo, N. D., and L. E. Smith and family of Columbus, were guests of O. A. Rusler and family Wednesday. Mrs. O. A. Rusler received a telegram Tuesday morning announcing accidental death of her brother C. H. Hill of Towner, N. D. No particulars were given. The body will be brought here for burial.

ENVOYS EXCHANGED BY BITTER FOES FACE HARD TASKS

What are probably the two most difficult diplomatic assignments in the service of any country today are now being filled by Otto Landsberg and Dr. Kerokoro de Denterchen. Landsberg has been named new German charge d'affaires to Belgium by the German government and Dr. de Denterchen has been named Belgian ambassador to Berlin. Because of the way in which Germany violated Belgium's neutrality and then ruthlessly stayed Belgians and devastated the country, the two nations are the bitterest enemies made by the world war.

BUSINESS EDUCATION.

A bank man from another town was speaking the other day of the difficulty of finding young people who can do good work in a business office. "There are very few high school pupils," he said, "who can write, cipher or spell. Our school has a commercial course, but it gives only a smattering of the information required. The pupils don't get drill enough to be accurate. This complaint is common and has even been heard in Newark. A great many people would solve the problem by having the schools return to the three R's. But probably the same man who kicked because the young people could not cipher, would also kick if they could not tell something about Thomas Jefferson or Daniel Webster. Young people without general intelligence are undesirable. The essential trouble seems to be that too little effort is made to fit young people for the special kind of thing they are going to do. If a boy is going into a professional career, or if he is to run a lathe in a factory, no great harm is done if he makes an error in some long and tedious example in partial payments. On the contrary, if he is going to be a bank clerk or work on his father's farm, he will soon forget all his high school latin. Also he will not need to know why x raised to the nth power equals Y plus Z square. Young people who plan to enter business offices need a very long drill on arithmetic and bookkeeping, others do not need so much emphasis on these subjects. In a school that limited itself to long mechanical drill on business subjects, many gifted young people would fail to discover their real capacities. After they become settled in some employment below their possibilities it is commonly too late to change. The ideal school system will have distinct courses for distinct types of pupils. Each boy and girl needs individual study to determine what he is good for. He ought to be started at the earliest possible moment along the track that will help him most.

THEN AND NOW.

In Mark Hanna's day the employer of labor said to his men, "My best interests are served only by the election of a Republican President and a Republican congress. If you don't vote for them, I will close the shop after election." Men who believed their interests and the interests of the common people were best served by voting for a Democratic president and congress, did as the employer said because they did not dare face the prospect of being out of work. Finally in 1912 they shook off the shackles and elected Woodrow Wilson. Soon measures long refused by Republican administrations were enacted. The Federal Reserve banking act, the Farm Loan law, the Child Labor law, the laws lessening the long hours of toil in many lines and bettering working conditions, were passed. The country took on a new kind of prosperity. It was a prosperity of the masses and not the classes. And that prosperity has grown during every year of the Wilson administration until today the farmer, the laboring man and the common people of America are enjoying a higher standard of living than they ever before knew. They are enjoying more of the luxuries of life. The action of the New York Life Insurance company in writing off its entire Russian business illustrates the difficulty of practical internationalism making headway against visionary kind.—Springfield Republican.

PAY-UP CAMPAIGNS.

In many cities business organizations have recently been promoting Pay-Up Campaigns, and other towns will carry out the same idea. It is a practical suggestion for the conservation of resources, and the mobilization of the nation's business forces.

If everybody would pay his bills promptly, the cost of living would be reduced. Merchants would not have to charge up so many bad debts to their customers. They would get along with much smaller loans, the interest on which is charged to the consumer.

Such a policy would heap up a higher pile of capital in all banks. This would not lie idle. It would be available to finance the development of the country. People who want to harness water power, create manufacturing plants, and improve farms, would have a greater reserve on which they could draw for loans. This development would cheapen production, and help stop the profiteering from which the nation suffers.

People should not be misled by the idea that the slight difference created by their own action could not affect anything. The community is built up only when every person feels under a compelling obligation to do his share, regardless whether other people do so or not.

Example is contagious. If one man in Newark decides some morning that he is going to pay his long due butcher's bill, that permits the butcher to pay the grocer. The grocer can then pay the dry goods man, and so it goes until the whole round of debt and discouragement has been cleared off just by one man's action.

If prompt debt paying could be made the general habit, it would give new optimism and go-ahead spirit to every business man.

WHAT TO DO WITH HOHEN-ZOLLERN.

(Pittsburgh Gazette-Times)
Latest news touching the future of William Hohenzollern represents the entire allies as willing to abandon their claim to the body of the ex-Kaiser in consideration of his internment by Holland in the East Indies and Holland as receding from her refusal to recognize the allies' right to enforce the demand to the extent of willingness to make a prisoner of the German in the house he recently purchased at Doorn. May not the simple-minded be pardoned for concluding that all the parties to the discussions are groping for a way out of a situation in which none of them are precisely sure of the ground on which they stand? Surely, if the allies may require Holland to send the ex-Kaiser away and keep him a prisoner, they may with equal propriety insist that he be handed over to them for such punishment as they may subject him to. If the Netherlands government may justly refuse the allies demand for the Hohenzollern on the ground that he is a political refugee entitled to protection of his laws, by what process of reasoning can she justify locking him up and treating him as a malefactor? Were he surrendered to the allies he would be assured of a trial under the forms of law, which would enable him, as is expressly provided for the peace treaty, to make a legal defense. If Holland condemns him to imprisonment at Doorn, as it is now reported she proposes to do, he would be deprived of the right to which he is entitled under the laws of all enlightened peoples; he would be condemned without a hearing and without the opportunity of making a defense. Where would that leave Holland? In the end her stultification would be greater than that of the entire allies, who had receded from the position which they originally took with much hesitation. Public opinion does not change in the meantime. The wrath of people against the man whom they hold responsible for the great war burns with no less intensity today than it did a year ago. Of the Kaiser's guilt they are convinced and they demand that he be punished appropriately. It would seem to be the part of wisdom for the allies and Holland to come to an agreement on what is to be done with the Hohenzollern and do it in such a manner that there can be no doubt in any mind that the arch-enemy of our time has been condemned and is being made to suffer as a penalty for his crimes.

OUR OLDER PRESIDENTS.

(Ohio State Journal)
President Woodrow Wilson is the oldest man to occupy the White House since the days of James Buchanan. President Wilson is 63, reached that age on his birthday, December 28. James Buchanan was 66 when he entered the White House and 70 when he left it. Andrew Johnson lived 74 days of being 70 when he retired from the White House. Since his day there, no presidents save Wilson, Buchanan and Taylor have reached the age of 61 while occupying the office of president. Few presidents in the last half century have lived to see three successors in office; several have not lived long enough to see two, although Franklin Pierce lived to see four of his successors leave the White House. Great lengths of life has not been the portion of most men who lived in the White House.

A Coming Treat.
We have the pleasure of announcing that our prominent contrib, Willie Getti, has plunged into real authorship and the Melting Pot has secured the sole right to publication of his thrilling new serial, "Beulah, the Beautiful Blonde Button Maker," in which the author gives free rein to his genius, ignoring all the hackneyed traditions of character analysis and sex problems and producing a tale of intense action in which the reader is breathlessly swept from one startling incident to another. It is superfluous to state to the many friends Bill has already won by his verse that the story has a strong love interest. There is also an exciting mystery involving the fate of a helpless old man which has artfully been left without solution. The narrative will have a special local appeal from the fact that the scene is laid in and

Married Strangers

LXXVI.—Nearly a Confession.

Keitha was too astounded by Bennett's revelation to make an immediate reply. Finally she gasped. "Are you sure?" "Positively," replied Bennett, gazing moodily out over the sea. "Did you tell Mlle. Forestier that her fiancée was married to someone else?" persisted Keitha. "Of course not," he shrugged, "I'm not that much of a brute, she'll have to find out for herself." "Don't you think it would be more kindly to tell her," suggested Keitha. "I do not," he returned, "let her keep on thinking him missing, as his family and the war department seemed to be doing." "Where do you suppose he really is?" "God knows," returned Bennett indifferently, "probably in one of his usual jams, he found it necessary to drop out for a time. He'll no doubt show up in a year or so, when things have cooled down, with some plausible story about being kidnapped or suffering mental apoplexy, that's about HOL's speed." Keitha looked at him curiously. "Why don't you tell me his name?" she asked. "Oh, just a crazy idea of honor, I have, you wouldn't think of honor in connection with me, I dare say," he added with a slight grimace. "Is that why Captain Sinclair, that other officer we met in New York—I have forgotten his name—merely hinted at things you had done in Paris," inquired Keitha. Bennett flushed darkly. "I don't think I'll ever be able to make you understand about the Keitha, you're such a Puritan, you have such definite ideas of right and wrong. I was only a bride groom of a few days remember, when I sailed for France. I didn't feel in the least married, nor burdened with responsibility. Did You Know
That the first agricultural school was founded by Fellenberg at Hofwyl, Switzerland, in 1806? His pupils were taken from the poorest class of peasantry, of which he observed that "having no other property than their physical and mental faculties, they should be taught how to use the capital to the best advantage." Three thousand pupils were trained in this school which flourished for thirty years. Subsequently, France established a similar school at Grignon, an old royal palace with its domain of 1,185 acres.

Try Making Your Own Cough Remedy
You can save about $2, and have a better remedy than the ready-made kind. Easily done.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this simple home-made cough syrup, which is easily prepared in a few minutes.

Get from any druggist 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated sugar syrup, clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, as desired. The result is a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Tastes pleasant and never spoils.

This Pinex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better. Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break up severe coughs. To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. Our Boys and Girls

Do everything in your power, young Mother, to maintain a supply of breast milk, so that your baby may avoid the dangers that come from bottle feedings. Build up your own strength by nourishing food, plenty of sleep, regular bowel and seat control. Do not drink coffee, but chocolate and cocoa instead. Drink a glass of milk each night before retiring and let the bowels be kept open, as this is constipating. This is absolutely necessary.

The baby most guarded against disease is the breast infant. The next best is the baby who has supplementary feedings from the bottle, a combination of breast and mother's milk. If it is necessary that your baby use a bottle, see that the bottles are always clean and the nipples sterilized.

If the baby nurse, cleanse the nipples with sterilized soap or old linen dipped in a solution of boracic acid. Never handle the breast or nipples with unwashed fingers, dried towels or handkerchiefs. Every baby needs a certain amount of water but it should never be boiled. Every morning boil a pint of water, pour it in a sterilized bottle, cork with non-absorbent cotton and set in a cool place. Give the baby a drink from the bottle, using a sterilized nipple which you have kept under cover in an absolutely clean place.

BEN FRANKLIN

A BEAUTIFUL WOMAN is the symbol of perfection. Clothes may accentuate beauty or mar it. Our great mission is to inspire, suggest and guide towards the attainment of perfection in dress.

We always try to keep in mind, however, that most people must gauge their purchases according to limited incomes, and, at the same time, they seek a certain dignity and refinement in their clothes.

Thousands of Women

Owe Their Health To

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—overshadowing indeed is the success of this great medicine. Compared with it, all other medicines for women's ills seem to be experiments.

Why is it so successful? Simply because of its sterling worth. For over forty years it has had no equal. Women for two generations have depended upon it with confidence.

Thousands of Their Letters are on our files, which prove these statements to be facts, not mere boasting.

Here Are Two Sample Letters:

Mother and Daughter Helped. Middlebury, Pa.—"I am glad to state that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did me much good when I was 35 years old. I was run down with female trouble and was not able to do anything, could not walk for a year and could not work. I had treatment from a physician but did not gain. I read in the papers and books about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it. The first few bottles gave me relief and I kept on using it until I got better and was able to do my work. The Vegetable Compound also regulated my daughter when she was 15 years old. I can recommend Vegetable Compound as the best medicine I have ever used."—Mrs. W. Yarns, R. 3, Box 21, Middlebury, Pa.

Full River, Mass.—"Three years ago I gave birth to a little girl and after she was born I did not pick up well. I doctored for two months and my condition remained the same. One day one of your little books was sent me and that I try a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I started it immediately and I felt better and could eat better after the first bottle, and I continued taking it for some time. Last year I gave birth to a baby boy and had a much easier time as I took the Vegetable Compound for four months before baby came. On getting up I had no pains like I had before, and no dizziness, and in two weeks felt about as well as ever."—Mrs. THOMAS WILKINSON, 308 Columbia Street, Fall River, Mass.

FAR-SIGHT
IS the commonest of all errors of vision. In young people it is liable to be overlooked, which results in eye strain, causing lack of interest in school work, and in some instances in wilful disobedience. Parents should give this subject some thought, and if there is any reason to suspect that their children have not normal sight, they should interview us.

KRESGE STORES PLAN CLUBS FOR WORKERS

The S. S. Kresge company which has obtained a long time lease on the Edison property now occupied by the Collins drug store and the Vogue millinery store adjoining its present location in the Arcade, has not as yet announced its plan of expansion but that the store will be enlarged and improved there is no doubt.

As fast as space can be provided and alterations made all of the 180 Kresge stores will have club facilities for the workers. So far 53 Kresge clubs have been organized in Kresge retail stores by the employees. They elect their own officers and manage their own clubs. The Kresge company provides the club quarters, furnishes and equips them and then turns them over to the girls. They have rugs, easy chairs, writing desks, magazines, books, phonograph, a piano and usually hard wood floors. Adjoining is a lunch room with hot coffee urns and conveniences for a good hot midday lunch.

In the newer club quarters, shower baths, lockers, etc., are provided. A matron is in attendance always and renders aid and advice to all employees through the hospital department.

During her lunch hour and relief periods, you will find clerks reading, resting, singing or dancing in the club. In the evening, family affairs are frequently staged when relatives and friends are invited.

SCHOEBER HERE FOR MATCH WITH BOWSER

Billy Schoeber, who claims the middleweight championship of the United States, arrived in the city last evening and will meet Paul Bowser, also claimant for the middleweight honors, at the Auditorium theater this evening.

Schoeber looks like a picture of health and has just completed his twelfth match in the middle west. He and Bowser went two hours without a decision several years ago in this city, but could never agree on a date for a return match up to the present time.

It is expected that a large house will greet the two gladiators tonight as the advance sale of seats has been quite large. Bowser had a match at Iron-ton last night, his opponent scoring the first fall. Bowser the second and the two men wrestled until after midnight to a draw.

PATRIOTIC SERVICE TO MARK MEMORIAL GIFT

At the high school auditorium Friday afternoon at 2:35 Major C. W. Montgomery will give an address of a patriotic nature at the presentation of the memorial tablet of the class of 1919. Music will be furnished by the high school orchestra and patriotic songs will be sung.

A bronze tablet commemorating the service of the men who were killed in the war will be presented by President C. K. Rader on behalf of the class of 1919. The high school Superintendent, Owen J. Barnes will receive the tablet for the school.

Members of the class of 1919 have been especially urged to be present at this meeting. The ceremony is open to the public. Representatives of the American Legion and the G. A. R. and other patriotic bodies have been asked to attend.

The Dominican republic covers the eastern two-thirds of the island of Haiti and has a population of about 700,000 or thirty-five to a square mile.

USE DOGS AS SNUFFERS

Amateur Aid Ill-fated Dealers in Bringing Liquor and Drugs into the United States.

Training dogs to smuggle liquor across the Rio Grande river is the latest device of ingenious minds of those who make a living by means of illicit importation to the United States of liquor and drugs. That innovation in line running came to light at El Paso, Tex., recently when a Mexican river guard shot a "dog smuggler" in the act of swimming the Rio Grande with four bottles of tequila, a Mexican liquor of cactus distillation, tied across his back.

The dog, as the story of the service to his master is told by United States customs men, had been making nightly trips between Juarez and El Paso with contraband goods for several months. The strange, but regular, actions of the animal first were noted by customs officers about two months ago. Beginning at two o'clock in the morning, the dog would begin his operations. Signal lights flashed by confederates in the gang of smugglers stationed on each side of the river always preceded the dog's trip across stream. Dashing out of a cluster of squalid adobe houses along the Mexican side of the river, the animal would plunge into the Rio Grande with his load.

Emerging on the American side, the "smuggler" always was successful in eluding pursuers, who often sought to lasso the dog, being loath to shoot an unsuspecting law violator.

FOUND NEW LAND OF GOLD

New York Mining Man Reports Rich Discoveries Made in the Mines of Colombia.

A new gold region has been discovered in Colombia, according to J. V. Priest, a mining man, who arrived at New York from Santa Marta, Colombia.

Mr. Priest said that some time ago he was told by a Frenchman, who said he was a government employee, of fabulous wealth that lay hidden in the mines of Colombia. Mr. Priest, accompanied by his wife and C. L. Logue, a mining engineer, visited Colombia recently and spent his time in visiting various sections.

After landing at Cartagena, Mr. Priest said, he and his companions went up the Magdalena river 250 miles and disembarked, going overland through a mountainous country for 65 miles.

At the end of the journey, Mr. Priest said, they found vast gold fields which had never been actively developed because of the absence of the proper machinery. He said this is accounted for by the lack of transit facilities, it being a most difficult matter to ship material of any kind to this point.

Peace Hath Its Sorrows

A woman's society, whose principal activity during the war was providing entertainment for the soldiers, was about to give a dance. One of the women who had acted as chaperon meeting a demure miss who had earnestly and strenuously thrown herself into the party and dance game, asked: "Coming to the dance, Lucilla?"

"I think not," answered Lucilla, with a sigh.

"Why, what's the reason?" asked the surprised chaperon.

"I would have no one to dance with," said Lucilla.

"All our boys are back," replied the chaperon. "There are as many men as ever."

"Well," said Lucilla, "we could always depend on the soldiers, but who's going to make those other men attend?"

Will Use Rifles of Veterans

Rifles that were actually used by United States marines against the Huns in France at Belleau wood, Soissons, St. Mihiel, Champagne or in the Argonne will be issued to recruits who never saw a fight when the big job just begun at the marine corps depot of supplies at Chicago is finished.

All the rifles used by marines in France have been turned in at the depot to be refinished and repaired. So well did their bearers care for them that most of them can be used again.

When they come out of the gunshop as good as new they will be issued to recruits, who will be inspired by the knowledge that they carry the same rifles that were used in the world war.

Had the Wrong Page

A young miss of seven, who has memorized from numerous readings to her portions of her Chatterbox, pretends to be able to read. One evening she was seated upon the lap of a guest affecting to read one of her favorite passages relating to dolls. She was proceeding with great enthusiasm for several moments when the guest interrupted her by saying: "But my dear child, I don't see anything about dolls on that page."

"I know it," she said promptly and sheepishly. "I was reading on the wrong page." Then, turning several pages, "It's over here."

Fine Results From Simple Dyes

A demonstration held in London by the Knox Guild of Design and Crafts showed the beautiful results produced by ordinary methods of dyeing. Some wooden stuffs woven by members of the guild with primitive apparatus were dyed with privet, bracken, gorse and other well-known plants and even with soot from the chimney, the last producing a beautiful old gold tint.

NEAR DEATH TWO YEARS BUT NOW BACK AT WORK

"For two years I suffered with indigestion," says Fred Baker, Electrician of Charleston, W. Va. "Food would ferment in my stomach causing severe pains and at one time I swelled so badly that I bursted a suit of underclothes. Doctors told me I had indigestion but the medicine they gave me made me worse. They feared I would drop dead while working and I finally had to quit. One day I read in a paper of Dr. Parker's Treatment for Indigestion and Constipation. The first box relieved the pain around my heart, and gassy condition. I've taken five boxes and am back to work feeling fine." This wonderful treatment will do as much for you. Get a box from your druggist—if it fails to please, your $1.25 will be refunded.

VIOLINIST SCORES GREAT SUCCESS

Isador Berger Wins Approval of Audience in Rendition of Old and New Numbers.

(Special to the Advocate)
Granville, Feb. 19.—The Festival Association scored another musical triumph Wednesday evening in the concert given by Isador Berger, violinist, which was the fourth attraction of the course. The program itself was a notable one, many of the numbers being not only new to a Granville audience, but of a compelling charm. The player proved to be a virtuoso of high rank, revealing exquisite feeling as well as technical skill, and winning repeated encores by the sheer merit of his performance. He was conservative in the matter of encores, acknowledging his mastery only by bowing. He responded to determined applause following his group of old Italian and French numbers by repeating "La Chasse," by Carlier, a marvellous bit of descriptive composition, as were the group of Berger's own compositions, "Scenes from Childhood," "Ding Dong," "Little Bo Peep," "Polly Wants a Cracker," "A Mouth Organ," "A Spinning Top," all tone paintings of daintiness and charm. By request he substituted "Souvenir" by Drda, in place of the "Ruse of Tasso" by Rimsky-Korsakow, and introduced into the group of his own compositions "Love's Old Sweet Song," with "Modern Setting to an Old Melody." Absolutely new to the audience was the "Sonata in B minor" by Beethoven as played without accompaniment by Mr. Berger, melody, harmony, cadenzas trills, and a wonderful running accompaniment evidenced the player's mastery of the instrument. The Tchaikovsky "Concerto," the Chopin-Wilhelms "Nocturne" and the Wieniawski "Polonaise Brillante" offered points of comparison with other players in which Mr. Berger successfully stood the test of musicianship.

The president of the association, Prof. M. E. Stickney, who introduced the player, announced that the accompanist, Miss Florence Schubert, having been taken ill, her place at the piano would be taken by Mrs. Otto Sands of Toledo. Mrs. Sands shared in the ovation rendered the violinist.

A well pleased audience at the home of Mrs. Darrow Wednesday afternoon, turned from the delights of a wonderful program of Schumann music to the hospitality offered during the social hour by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Miss Josephine Darrow, Mrs. Rohrer, Mrs. Morrow and Miss Eva Wright, with Mrs. W. F. Ullrich presiding at the tea table. Among the guests of the club were: Mrs. C. J. Rose, Mrs. C. A. Neyman, Mrs. W. A. Chamberlin, Mrs. L. H. Camack of Huntington, W. Va.; Mrs. C. B. Richardson, Cincinnati; Miss Martha Flurschütz, Newark; Mrs. Odebrecht, Mrs. Odebrecht, Mrs. Stanton, Mrs. Sheidt, Mrs. Clara T. Brumback; W. A. Palmer of Newark, Professors Biefield, Detweiler and Bennett and Willard Topping of Denison university. The company numbered about 60.

Hubert Wright of New Lexington was among the out of town attendants at the Berger concert last evening.

Mrs. L. H. Camack of Huntington, W. Va., is visiting her father, Him La Ferre and her sister, Miss Blanche La Ferre.

Miss Martha Flurschütz and Miss Besse Larken of Newark, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. White at Mt. Parnassus last evening, and members of their party at the Berger concert.

The beautiful roses in the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday morning were in memory of Rev. D. J. Smith, who died February 14, 1918.

The condition of Louis Dorsey, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Dorsey, who is ill with the flu at their home in Broadway, remains unchanged this morning. A consultation of Granville, Newark and Columbus physicians yesterday gave a hopeful report which will require a day or two to realize. There are ear and throat complications.

Miss Ella Lemon, a popular and old time resident of Newark, living at 27 1/2 West Main street, is a staunch endorser of Redex. She says: "My experience with Redex is certainly very gratifying indeed. I was very weak and nervous, had frequent headaches and felt very depressed. I was very restless at night and could seldom sleep. My appetite was very poor and I lost all my desire for food. The fire at the back of my rooms shook up my nerves and further aggravated my condition. I started to take Redex and it has helped me splendidly. I have a keen appetite, sleep well, and my nervous condition has greatly improved. My headaches have also disappeared and I feel better than I have for months past. I shall continue to take Redex as it has been very helpful to me and is a very fine medicine."

Redex is being demonstrated at Erman's Arcade Drug Store, where the expert will meet all callers and cheerfully explain the merits of this new remedy.

It is strange how the real dangers of life are not the spectacular ones at all. They are the little things we never notice. A man can risk his life a dozen times a week in a way that curdles the blood and never get scratched. Then he steps on a tack some day and it is all up with him.

The strangest part of it all is that it seems to be the people who make their living by risking their lives who are in most danger from the little things they never notice. The real danger in being a fireman, a railroad man or a policeman isn't the kind one thinks of at first. Statistics agree that it isn't burning buildings that kill the most firemen—it's eating irregularly. And conductors and brakemen are not in half as much danger from wrecks as they are from the quick lunches and cold meats they eat.

Sounds strange, but it is a fact. Hundreds of men in these occupations feel miserable all the time and don't know what is wrong. One can dodge a falling beam; wrecks don't happen so often—but if you've got a badly bolted meal lying in a stomach that isn't able to take care of it, you've got a poison factory right where it will do the most harm. There isn't any getting away from it. Redex, The New Herbal Remedy now

Miss Ella Lemon, a popular and old time resident of Newark, living at 27 1/2 West Main street, is a staunch endorser of Redex. She says: "My experience with Redex is certainly very gratifying indeed. I was very weak and nervous, had frequent headaches and felt very depressed. I was very restless at night and could seldom sleep. My appetite was very poor and I lost all my desire for food. The fire at the back of my rooms shook up my nerves and further aggravated my condition. I started to take Redex and it has helped me splendidly. I have a keen appetite, sleep well, and my nervous condition has greatly improved. My headaches have also disappeared and I feel better than I have for months past. I shall continue to take Redex as it has been very helpful to me and is a very fine medicine."

Redex is being demonstrated at Erman's Arcade Drug Store, where the expert will meet all callers and cheerfully explain the merits of this new remedy.

A REMEDY FOR ACHES AND PAINS THAT'S DIFFERENT

You Don't Know What a Really Good Liniment will do Until You Try "Houstonia."

Most liniments act as a counter irritant on the surface and give only temporary relief. Houstonia is different. Gets right under the skin. Penetrates to the source of the trouble. Rub if you want to—it won't burn or blister—but you don't have to. It goes in anyway. Contains just what is necessary to help Nature limber up stiff muscles, ease twinging, throbbing joints, and give immediate relief to sufferers from backache, lumbago, stiff neck, colds in the chest, sore-throat and kindred ailments. It penetrates to the affected parts and scatters congestion. Truly Nature's Aid. Ask for Houstonia, pronounced House-tone-ah (The Original Jones Liniment) at all druggists, 25, 50 cents and $1.00. The same old price. No profiteering. The Dr. J. C. Jones Company, So. Charleston, Ohio.
